Video: The writing process

The easiest way of getting your words on paper. Focus is on the process rather than the final copy therefore making you a more creative writer.

Step 1: Planning:

This is the time to brainstorm and organise your ideas.

What are some methods that can be used? Quick write: rapidly writing down ideas about a topic. Make a planning sheet, mind map.

Step 2: Drafting

Girl: This is where I turn my ideas into a story.

Boy: I use different colours for each new step in my story! I never erase! I just draw a line through, saving my original ideas.

Girl: Or you can skip lines to leave space for editing!

Step 3: Re-writing

Woman: Big changes happen during revision as writers examine their content, word choice, paragraphing and writing style.

The man ate

The man ate pizza

The man ate a deliciously hot, cheesy salami pizza.

Step 4: Editing

Woman: Editing means checking your work for errors.

Boy: I check for spelling errors.

Girl: And I check for punctuation!

Step 5: Proofreading

Woman: This is just to make sure it's perfect before writing out the final copy and submitting it to the teacher.

Wow this essay is great!

Now, it's really great!
